About Department of Commerce Honours

B.COM HONOURS is a three-year, full-time undergraduate program. This prestigious, unique programme is affiliated to Bharathidasan University - a State Government University. The uniqueness of this programme is that its curriculum is embedded with the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA, UK) qualification. The B.COM HONOURS syllabus includes all subjects of ACCA. The ACCA, UK has given maximum paper exemption to the B.COM Honours department which is an exceptional recognition of its merit and achievement. After the successful completion of the requirements of this programme, a student will hold a state university approved B.COM HONOURS degree and an affiliate status from ACCA (Upon Clearing four professional papers of ACCA). St. Joseph's College has signed MOU with International Skill Development Corporation (ISDC), UK as a learning partner to train the students for ACCA GLOBAL examination and also assisting in the placement of Honours students. This Honours programme equips the students with a strong base in Accounting, Analytics and Taxation besides imparting in-depth knowledge and skills in a host of other value adding subjects. In brief, with a state university approved honours degree from a well reputed College and a globally recognized ACCA certification, the honours graduate can seek a lucrative career practically in any relevant field, anywhere in the world. The ACCA, UK has given maximum paper exemption to the B.COM Honours department which is an exceptional recognition of its merit and achievement.

About the International Conclave

In an era marked by unprecedented global challenges, the path to a sustainable, equitable future depends on collaboration, innovation, and action. The International Conclave 2025 brings together professionals, entrepreneurs, policymakers, academicians, and changemakers with one shared goal — accelerating progress towards the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) by 2030.

This platform aims to ignite dialogue, promote knowledge exchange, and showcase best practices in embedding sustainability into professional, corporate, and policy frameworks. Through diverse sessions, participants will explore cutting-edge strategies that integrate sustainability into business, governance, innovation, and community development.
