

About the Workshop

The workshop, "From Chalkboards to Chatbots: The Evolution of Teaching Tools in ELT and Literature," is a dynamic platform to explore the transformative journey of teaching tools in English Language Teaching (ELT) and Literature. This event is personalized for faculty members, scholars, and students eager to understand and leverage innovative methodologies in their academic and professional pursuits. Participants will delve into the progression of instructional technologies, from traditional methods to cutting-edge AI-driven tools, and their impact on pedagogy and literary studies. The sessions will cover the integration of digital tools in classrooms, enhancing interactive learning, and exploring AI-powered applications to improve teaching outcomes. Through hands-on activities, discussions, and expert guidance, attendees will gain insights into aligning teaching practices with modern advancements while maintaining the essence of humanistic education. This workshop aims to equip participants with practical strategies to embrace technology responsibly, fostering creativity and critical thinking in ELT and Literature.

Objectives

- highlight the transition from traditional methods to modern digital technologies.
- incorporate digital tools into curriculum planning and delivery in ELT and Literature
- discuss best practices and pedagogical strategies
- foster a critical understanding of the challenges and opportunities

About the Department

To fulfill the growing demand for the study of English Language & Literature, SJC envisaged starting B.A. English in Shift-II in 2007, and M.A. English in 2011. The department has been periodically revising and updating the syllabi with socially relevant and job-oriented courses which have gained popularity in academic circles. The Department of English, which is one of the oldest and also one of the biggest departments of this college of historical importance, imparts quality education with a holistic vision to over 400 students with 20 Assistant Professors.

About the College

St. Joseph's College, an educational institution affiliated to Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli, Tamil Nadu, was founded in 1844 by the Fathers of the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits), with the noble aim of providing education to the humanity with the motto "Pro Bono Et Vero" which means "FOR THE GOOD AND THE TRUE". This 181-year-old wonder gained its recognition by the UGC as a College with Potential for Excellence (CPE) in the year 2004. The NAAC accredited SJC at "A" Grade (3rd cycle) in 2012, and re-accredited at "A++" Grade (4th cycle) in 2019. St. Joseph's College is the only college in the State of Tamil Nadu to be awarded the Special Heritage Status by the UGC in the year 2015. Striving to be an agent of social change, SJC trains young men and women to be quality leaders in all walks of life so that they may serve the nation with truth, justice, and love.
